“Midgley Snelling walked me through the whole process of starting a new business, explaining, for example, my VAT returns and tax. They are there and are always available to talk to, which I have found very helpful.”

“I have already recommended them to a friend with a small website company because I know I can pick up the phone any time and they will be there to explain everything in layman’s terms. They have a good hands-on service and, as I know they want to help, I don’t feel like I’m a burden.”

Satisfied clients

At Midgley Snelling, we have consistently provided a high level of service to our clients since 1925.

Many of our clients have been with the firm for several decades, due to the close working relationships we have developed with them to find out what they want to achieve and how we can help them in the most effective way, but we are equally committed to supporting new clients and budding entrepreneurs in achieving their business goals.

Don't just take our word for it. At Midgley Snelling, we like our clients to do the talking...

When Nicola Phillips started her media and entertainment company, Sane Entertainment, she wanted a local accountant that wasn't just a one man band.

Following a Google search, she arranged a meeting with Midgley Snelling and was very impressed by the accountant she spoke to.

"As I only started my company a year ago, I have had so many questions. Midgley Snelling go through everything with me and James has walked me through my VAT returns online more than once, so I don't make any errors.

"As a result, I know my accounts and VAT returns are done properly and how a new company should be run. Midgley Snelling have been brilliant."

“As a result of the good dealings I have had with Midgley Snelling, I have already recommended them to other people looking for an accountancy firm.”
