1970s

PARTNERSHIPS GROW WITHIN COMMONWEALTH

Mr H.A. Snelling from British Chartered Accountants and founding member firm Midgley Snelling travels the world three times before his death in 1970, establishing relationships with firms across the Commonwealth, from the Isle of Man, Jersey and Guernsey to South Africa and Australia.

1960s

PARTNERSHIPS EXTEND TO SWITZERLAND

A partnership is established with Switzerland-based firm in Lausanne in 1968, extending the association's reach throughout Europe.

1968

INTERNATIONAL PARTNERSHIPS EXTEND TO NORTH AMERICA

In 1961, Midgley Snelling established an international association with Arthur Morris, based in Hamilton, Bermuda.

1961

SECOND PARTNERSHIP ADDED IN WEST AFRICA

Founding member firm Midgley Snelling sets up first international partnership with a Ghanaian practice where the venture proved to be very successful and because of client expansions, it was then shortly followed by the opening of an office in Lagos, Nigeria.

OUR FIRST INTERNATIONAL PARTNERSHIP IS BORN

An advertisement from the Ghana Cocoa Marketing Board appears in a London newspaper requesting applications from firms of accountants to undertake the audit of the affairs of the Board in Ghana.

Mr H.A. Snelling from British Chartered Accountants and founding member firm Midgley Snelling was the first and only accountant to travel to Ghana to present himself to the Board in person. Whilst flying over the Sahara the aircraft crashed but he managed to walk back across the desert and caught another plane, eventually arriving in Accra. He secured the audit work and then had to find a suitably qualified person who was interested in working in Ghana with whom he could set up. This was the first international partnership of its kind for our organisation and the start of many more to follow.
